

ALTAF HUSSAIN ANNOUNCES PUBLIC REFERENDUM TO DEAL WITH CURRENT CRITICAL AND SENSITIVE SITUATION FACED BY PAKISTAN

Please express your opinion by ticking on the option underneath of each question

1: Did the citizens of America, Britain, Spain and other countries, after becoming the victims of terrorism, in the larger national interest keeping their political and ideological differences at one side, demanded for an action against those responsible for terrorism and their respective parties?

Yes No

2: Or taking advantage of the acts of terrorism and to increase the rating of their respective parties, they tried to take advantage of the situation?

Yes No

3: Did the Presidents and Prime Ministers of these countries, after the huge incidents of terrorism and important sensitive occurrences immediately or soon after went on foreign visits?

Yes No

4: Or after the occurrences of the acts of terrorism, if the Presidents and Prime Ministers of the respective countries preferred to cancel their foreign visits and immediately returned to their countries?

A: Cancelled their visits and returned

B: Continued their visits

5: Did the people of these countries, after these acts of terrorism or any other sensitive occurrence, demanded for resignation or an action against their respective heads of armed forces and/or intelligence agencies?

Yes No

6: Do you think our armed forces and intelligence agencies should support the 98 percent poor and middleclass people or they should side with the feudals, sardars and waderas and corrupt capitalists?

A: They should support the 98 percent poor and middleclass.

B: They should support the feudals, corrupt capitalists, waderas and sardars.

7: What line of action should the people of Pakistan adopt against the terrorists involved in suicide attacks and bomb blasts?

A: Support the suicide bombers and those involved in bomb blasts.

B: Get united against the suicide bombers and those responsible for bomb blasts.

8: During the natural calamities, earthquakes, floods and other tragedies; did our armed forces and intelligence agencies provide more rescue and relief services as compared to the political and religious parties?

Yes No

9: Referring to the terrorist attacks within the country, including the suicide attacks and bomb explosions, did the personnel and officers of armed forces, police and other law enforcement agencies offer more human sacrifices as compared to the leaders of political and religious parties?

A: The personnel and officers of armed forces and other law enforcement agencies.

B: The leaders of political and religious parties.

10: If the American attack and intrusion in Pakistan is an attack against the sovereignty of Pakistan, is it not true that the illegal stay of the foreigner Osama Bin Laden is also an attack on the sovereignty of Pakistan?

A: Both the American attack and the illegal stay of foreigner Osama Bin Laden are tantamount to attack on the sovereignty of the country.

B: Only the American attack.

11: Are the drone attacks on our country, occurring with or without the consent of the government, the armed forces and the intelligence agencies?

A: Without their consent.

B: With their consent.

12: If the drone attacks are occurring with the consent of the government and the armed forces then should the government and armed forces not inform the nation?

A: Should inform the nation.

B: Should not inform the nation.

13: In the current critical and sensitive scenario what should the government, its coalition partners, armed forces and opposition parties do?

A: Sit around the table and inform the nation about the real facts and unite on a one point agenda.

B: Confront each other and hold each other responsible for the situation.

14: Should Pakistan cut-off its ties with America and formally start a war against USA or should both the countries ignore and put aside their mistakes and errors and start afresh for an honourable and constructive relationship?

A: Cut-off its ties with USA and start the war.

B: Start afresh for an honourable and constructive relationship.

15: To deal with the aftermath of the death of Osama Bin Laden and for the compensation of losses, should a round-table conference be convened without further delay of all national parties including the armed forces and intelligence agencies and formulate one united national line of action?

A: Convene a round-table conference without further delay.

B: No need to convene a round-table conference.

16: Does the sensitive state of affairs within Pakistan demand that we should review our foreign policy and line of action with reference to Afghanistan, Iran, India, China and other countries for a productive and confident relationship?

- A: Review our policy and line of action for a productive and confident relationship.
- B: Start a war with all neighbouring countries and occupy these countries and form our own government.

17: Should the people of Pakistan unite and prepare themselves for a new, positive and peaceful revolution?

- A: Yes, we should immediately get united.
- B: Continue with our attitude to proclaim our political parties as patriotic.

Mr Altaf Hussain appealed to the nation that they can send their answers, replies and suggestions to:

MQM Head Nine Zero
494/8 Azizabad, F.B Area,
Karachi,

On the telephone 021-36313690, 36329900 or

Via fax on 021-36329955 or

Via email on mqm@mqm.org.

Furthermore, they can also contact the MQM offices near their homes to get a copy of the questionnaire and to submit their response, suggestions and answers.

The questionnaire form can also be downloaded from the MQM website at www.mqm.org