

ABOUT ALTAF HUSSAN -
MQM - ARMY CRACK DOWN - SPLINTER GROUPS

The military establishment, the ruthless feudal lords, those elites who became filthy rich through corruption and the corrupt bureaucrats of Pakistan continued to conspire against the MQM that has challenged the decayed system of the country and that challenge was a direct blow to the vested designs of the military establishment and those mentioned above. Since the MQM had the support of civilized and educated people of urban parts and cities of Sindh Province, the devilish and tricky military establishment planned to create splinter groups in the MQM to weaken the Movement, its political philosophy and ideology. Pakistan's army and premier intelligence service ISI have always been interfering in politics. The role of Pakistan Army and ISI in the formation, division and destruction of political parties is not hidden from anyone. In order to control the country's institutions, even politics and the judiciary, it started to destabilize democracy from the very beginning through creating factions in political parties through paid puppets. Military Establishment and ISI implement their vested plans. Those showing resistance or defying the role of the military establishment are instantly declared spies of enemy countries and traitors.

The First charge of treason - 1979: [first person witness]

Since day one, I, Altaf Hussain, the founder of "All Pakistan Mohajir Students Organization - or - APMSO", has been targeted by the military establishment, who had started implementing its notorious agenda to isolate me and for that purpose, they then launched a scheme under the idea of "Minus Altaf Formula". On June 11, 1978, when the APMSO was founded, martial law was in effect in Pakistan at that time. General Zia ul Haque was in power. At that time, the military establishment kept making conspiracies to stop the rapidly growing popularity of myself among the students of the University of Karachi. At that time, the Cold War was going on between America and Russia and Pakistan was playing the role of "proxy" in the war between Afghanistan and USSR now Russia. ISI was fully involved in the Afghan war and was sending Mujahideen from Pakistan to Afghanistan through Jamat-e Islami. Pakistan Army and ISI provided all facilities to Jamat-e Islami. In the municipal elections conducted by the military government in 1979 and 1983, Jamat-e Islami was imposed. Abdul Sattar Afghani, who belonged to Jamat-e Islami, was crowned as the Karachi Mayor. The army imposed the Jamate Islami student wing known as Islami Jamiat Talba in University of Karachi and formed the Jamat's Thunder Squad for armed terrorism and equipped them weapons.

When my popularity and APMSO started increasing day by day in University of Karachi and Mohajir students started uniting on the platform of APMSO in the student union elections, under a systematic conspiracy plan, on 3rd February 1981, the terrorists of the Thunder Squad of the Islamic Jamiat Talba attacked the APMSO admission stalls in Karachi University, which were set up to guide the students coming for new admissions. Violent attacks were at apex and even female students were chased and targeted. The admissions guiding stalls were destroyed.

The University of Karachi administration and Police did not take any action against the Thunder Squad terrorists. Instead the founder of APMSO, Altaf Hussain was restricted to enter university premises. Any workers of APMSO who tried to go to any educational institution would be tortured by the terrorists of Thunder Squad.

Having been thrown out forcefully at gun point by the members of the Thunder Squad (IJT), from the University of Karachi, I and my colleagues started the struggle for the rights of Mohajirs at the public level in Karachi, Hyderabad and other cities of Sindh. After untiring three years of effort, it was decided through mutual consultation that a public party named "Mohajir Qaumi Movement" (Mohajir National Movement) should be formed in cities of Sindh. The military establishment reacted instantly and patronized Dr Salim Haider, a central member of APMSO, to harm the movement and conspire to divide it through him. Under this conspiracy, Dr Salim Haider announced the formation of the Mohajir Ittehad Tehreek (MIT), at ISI's dictation.

Similarly, after some time, another senior member of APMSO, Shamoan Abrar, separated on the instructions of the army and ISI and formed a separate organization called "Pakistan Mohajir Front". Despite this division, we continued our struggle and on March 18, 1984, I founded Mohajir Qaumi Movement (MQM).

Why they opposed the philosophy of MQM ?

Before MQM, participation in elections were considered the right of only feudal lords and elite class, however educated and talented people belonging to the poor and middle class of the country could not even imagine participating in elections. MQM is the only party in Pakistan which has given opportunity to the educated and talented people of the poor and middle class in the outdated feudal system of the country to represent the people in the local and general elections so that the rights of the poor and middle class people can be discussed in the Parliament. MQM wanted to abolish the outdated feudal system, dynasty politics and the monopoly of 2 percent elite class and establish true democracy. MQM's idea of ruling by the poor and middle class gained popularity in other provinces of the country as well. On the occasion of my participation in the public meeting of the Muslim League held at Minar-e

Pakistan, Lahore on March 23, 1990, the people of Punjab met me in large number and joined MQM. On behalf of the 98 % poor and oppressed people across the country, the process of awareness against the outdated feudal system started to spread rapidly and people from other provinces and other nations started joining MQM. The military establishment did not like this and started a series of conspiracies against the MQM to stop it from spreading across the country. Because the concept of the rule of the poor and middle class was not acceptable to the military establishment of Pakistan, and even today the military establishment does not want to see true democracy in Pakistan, it wants to deprive the people of the right to rule by repeatedly interfering in politics.

MQM emerged as a Parliamentary Party:

In 1987 local body elections were held, MQM participated in them, and became victorious in two of the largest cities of Pakistan, namely Karachi and Hyderabad, in both the cities the Mayors and Deputy Mayors were elected unopposed.

MQM continued to gain public popularity with every passing day, MQM took part in all the consecutive general elections held in 1988 & 1990, MQM achieved landslide victories in all the successive elections under my leadership, and emerged as the 3rd largest political party at the federal level and 2nd largest at the provincial level in Sindh province of Pakistan and maintained its popularity.

Despite repeated warnings, the corruption, criminal activities and serious violations of organisational discipline by Afaq Ahmed, Aamir Khan and others continued and instead of reforming, they continued to act obstinately. They were working on a dangerous plan to harm MQM by staying in MQM. When these reports were confirmed after all the investigations, the Central Committee of MQM announced on March 7, 1991, the expulsion of several zonal and sector in-charges including Afaq Ahmed, Amir Khan, Badar Iqbal, etc., from MQM. This was announced by the Central Committee of MQM in a detailed statement which was published in Urdu and English newspapers on March 8, 1991 (Newspaper clippings available).

Having been expelled from MQM, these defected members were sent to America by the ISI. The army and the ISI met with Afaq Ahmed and Aamir Khan in America to implement their plan. Later, they were brought to Lahore, the capital of Pakistan's Punjab province, and there, along with close associates, an attack on MQM offices in Karachi was planned. On June 18, 1991, Afaq Ahmed and Aamir Khan, under the guidance and leadership of the army and ISI, along with their other criminal elements, attacked the regional office of MQM in Landhi area of Karachi.

Afaq Ahmed and Amir Khan formed their group as MQM Haqiqi who were given a task to complete the agenda by occupying the offices of other areas with the help of the army. When the news of the attack on the MQM office and the abduction of MQM officials spread among the people of Landhi and other areas, the people protested. On this, the Haqiqi terrorists armed with weapons started firing on the people. Due to the strong public resistance, Afaq Ahmed and Amir Khan were assisted by the ISI to escape from the area under their protection. When the people of the area stopped a car and caught the brother of a Haqiqi terrorist and the armed men with him, these men said that they belong to the army. When asked to confirm this, he showed his army identity card. Among them, an army officer Major Kaleem and other army personnel who were not in uniform, ISI identity cards were also recovered from them, these details are on record.

Attack on me

Despite the powers and resources, the military establishment faced shameful defeat continuously, then a plan was hatched to murder me. The ISI had planned to kill me and had formed various groups for this purpose. On December 21, 1991, when I returned to Karachi after my medical treatment in London my convoy was returning to my residence in Azizabad area, at Ayesha Manzil intersection, two terrorists attempted to kill me with grenades, in which I survived, the bombs exploded in their hands which resulted in their deaths.

After this attack, MQM central committee and all office bearers requested that my life is in serious danger in Pakistan, therefore I should lead the party from London.

Military operation against MQM

The Haqiqi terrorists escaped to Punjab province of Pakistan, where the military establishment kept them under their protection, which has been mentioned by the Punjab Inspector General of Police Sardar Muhammad Chaudhry in his book The Ultimate Crime.

In 1992, the peace and order situation in Karachi was very ideal while the army wanted to carry out an operation against the MQM. So, the army first carried out murders, kidnappings for ransom through its agents in other cities of Karachi and Sindh to justify the crackdown against the MQM. Based on these actions, the army launched an operation against the MQM. MQM was part of the coalition government of Federation and Muslim League in Sindh. In the National Assembly, the then Federal Minister Chaudhry Shujaat Hussain stated that operation clean-up will be conducted against 72 big fishes in Sindh who are involved in harboring criminals, kidnapping for ransom and other criminal activities, but the action against those 72 big fishes was directed toward the MQM instead. That list was also presented several times in the House of the National Assembly. In fact, the purpose of this list was to justify the arrival of the army in Sindh, i.e. to create the reasons and basis for the army's entry into Sindh. In this way, the whole world was told that this operation will not be against the MQM and Mohajirs, but it will be against 72 big criminals and the international community was kept unaware of the fact that the real target of the army and the government is the MQM and Mohajirs.

I had already understood the intentions and plans of the military establishment. That's why, I was constantly informing the workers and the public that this operation would never be against criminals, robbers, kidnappers and their patrons, but under the guise of an army operation against 72 big fishes, an operation has been planned against the Mohajirs and their representative political party, MQM.

Before the military operation against MQM, the army hid all the defectors of MQM in Malir Cantonment. When the military operation against MQM was launched on June 19, 1992, the Haqiqi terrorists were brought to the city on military trucks to fight with the MQM workers, if the MQM workers resisted, they were made to clash with the army, but we Instead of fighting them, directed all the workers to remain peaceful and go into hiding instead of confronting these criminal elements.

Criminals, Haqiqi terrorists with the help of the army carried out armed attacks on MQM offices and houses of party workers in all areas of Karachi, occupied the offices, kidnapped many MQM leaders, members of assembly, office bearers and workers and held them hostage at gunpoint. Loyalties were asked to change and those who refused were tortured and killed by Haqiqi terrorists. The leadership of MQM kept informing the federal and provincial governments about those attacks and requested them to take action against the Haqiqi, but no action was taken. I was in London, and coincidentally, the then-Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif was also visiting London at that time. I informed and requested him to intervene immediately and control the situation. He said that he would see, but he didn't do anything in this regard.

Because the government had a clear message from the army that the Haqiqi terrorists are their proxies, no action should be taken against them, no interference should be made in any of their work. Under the auspices of the army, these Haqiqi terrorists had completely occupied different areas of Karachi and made them No-Go Areas for MQM workers.

In that deadliest military operation, on the one hand, the Haqiqi terrorist group had full patronage, and on the other hand, MQM workers were being arrested, they were going missing, thousands of workers were imprisoned in jails, and hundreds of workers left the country to save their lives. In 1992, Claimant Aminul Haque also switched his political allegiance to the Army and joined the MQM Haqiqi, a group formed by the Army.

This proxy group had the full patronage of the army. The then Army Chief General Asif Nawaz Janjua openly supported the division of MQM and this proxy group. This statement of General Asif Nawaz is on record, which was published in daily Jang on October 24, 1992. In this statement, General Asif Nawaz said, "There are at least half a dozen Muslim Leagues in the country and one or more factions from almost every party. If they can exist peacefully, why can't the opposite factions of MQM exist?" (General Asif Nawaz Janjua's statement is available). This group formed under the auspices of the army, which called itself "MQM Haqiqi", had the same flag as MQM, but in reality, under the plan prepared by the army and the ISI, it was to kill the leadership of the MQM from Karachi, to use weapons. To end the political vacuum created after that, Army and ISI were brought in to help and protect. This has been admitted by Aamir Khan himself in a TV interview (Express TV clip available).

Conspiracies to establish more groups in MQM

Though the military establishment had utterly failed to gain the desired results, the military establishment continued its conspiracies against the MQM to weaken it. As in 1992, the then Army Chief General Asif Nawaz Janjua and the ISI, created Haqiqi group. The group was formed and just as the main leaders of MQM, Afaq Ahmed, Aamir Khan and many others were bought to lead the group, the army and its agencies bought the main leaders of MQM in 2013 to create more groups in MQM such as Mustafa Kamal and others. At that time, the Army Chief of the country was General Raheel Sharif and Director General ISI Rizwan Akhtar. General Rizwan Akhtar was the DG Rangers in Karachi before becoming DG ISI.

As DG Rangers a web of dangerous conspiracies started forming against MQM, which had been expressed in a threatening manner in front of some leaders of MQM. General Rizwan Akhtar was not only committing corruption on a large scale by using his position illegally, but was also sponsoring criminal groups to weaken MQM, including a notorious criminal group in Lyari area of Karachi.

MQM criticized the illegal actions of General Rizwan Akhtar, so he started sending false and fabricated reports against MQM to the headquarters of Pakistan Army, GHQ. Some biased generals in GHQ were also supporters of General Rizwan Akhtar's thinking. At that time, General Raheel Sharif was the country's army chief. Therefore, on the basis of the false reports prepared by General Rizwan Akhtar, a plan was prepared in the GHQ and ISI headquarters to divide the MQM into several groups. This plan was the same that was presented by the then Army Chief General Asif Nawaz in 1992 and to implement it, he started a military operation against the MQM on June 19, 1992 and formed a Haqiqi splinter group. Just like in 1991, the central leaders of that time Afaq Ahmed, Aamir Khan and their like-minded people started action against MQM while they were in MQM on the guidance of army and ISI. Similarly, in 2013, Deputy Convener of MQM Coordination Committee Anees Qaim Khani and Senator Mustafa Kamal, instead of working for MQM's manifesto and goals, started taking internal actions which harmed the interests and good name of the party, to avoid disciplinary action they left the country on the instructions of the ISI.

In 2015 I also exposed that the military establishment were fetching some traitors of MQM from abroad to Pakistan's capital city, Islamabad. The military junta had conspired to create a parallel splinter MQM. The designs were timely exposed.

After General Rizwan Akhtar was relieved by General Bilal Akbar as DG Rangers Sindh province, the new DG also continued to execute the conspiracies prepared against MQM as General Rizwan Akhtar did. General Bilal Akbar called specific journalists from Punjab to spread frustration among MQM leaders, parliamentarians and party officials and to make them accept and follow the "minus Altaf" formula and told them that Altaf Hussain is suffering from an incurable disease and that doctors had numbered his days in this world.

This was revealed by an anchor of Pakistan, Rauf Klasra, in a TV talk show. (video available). In 2015, the military establishment was preparing to form a new party consisting of Anees Qaim Khani and Mustafa Kamal and some others to weaken the MQM politically. On the other hand, the military establishment made the MQM follow its old "minus Altaf" formula. He started trapping the members of the coordination committee and the parliamentarians in his conspiratorial net. All this was being done on the one hand. On the other hand, the military establishment had also started an operation against MQM as part of its nefarious plans to eliminate MQM. MQM workers were being arrested and forcibly disappeared. In one incident, four or five MQM workers were arrested and killed in ISI's torture cells and their bodies were dumped. I raised my voice against those atrocities and in September 2015, the military establishment imposed a ban on my statements, speech, photos and even taking my name on the print and electronic media. Paramilitary Rangers even started taking down my pictures on posters, Pana flex and billboards put up by MQM supporters in Karachi and Hyderabad. On March 11, 2015, Paramilitary Rangers raided MQM's head office Nine Zero in Azizabad, Karachi to intensify operations against MQM and shot and killed an MQM worker, Waqas Ali Shah, and arrested several MQM office bearers, workers, residents of the area. Along with working labourers, and they also arrested my relatives while they were not in any political party. Those arrested were implicated in false cases and fabricated reports against them were aired in the media to mislead the people.

Despite those atrocities by the army and ISI, the people continued to support the MQM. In spite of the massive raid on Nine Zero in March 2015 and the propaganda of ISI, in April 2015, MQM won with a huge majority in the by-election of National Assembly Constituency NA 246 which was closely monitored by Army and Paramilitary Rangers in Azizabad. Similarly, MQM achieved a historic victory in the municipal elections held in December 2015. The people gave MQM a better mandate. Opposition parties could win only a few seats in Karachi compared to MQM. Seeing their conspiratorial plans failing, the military establishment intensified its operations against the MQM. On the one hand, MQM workers were targeted by ISI's trained and professional killers daily, and on the other hand, MQM workers were arrested and disappeared. The mutilated bodies of the workers started being thrown. A series of raids were also started on the head office of MQM, known as Nine Zero and other offices. The MPs of MQM tendered their resignations from Parliament in a peaceful protest against those atrocities, but the brutality of the military establishment continued.

Creation of splinter group Pak Sarzameen Party - PSP

The military establishment brought Anees Qaim Khani and Mustafa Kamal from abroad to Karachi on March 3, 2016 as part of their plan to create a new splinter group from within the MQM. They held a very offensive press conference held at ISI's bungalow in KhayabanSehar, the city's posh DHA (Defense Housing Authority) based on false allegations against

MQM. Then a new splinter group "PSP" was announced. The military establishment provided Mustafa Kamal and Anees Qaim Khani with luxurious bungalows, cars and money and all kinds of facilities and full security of police and paramilitary rangers in the most expensive area of Defense in Karachi, which is still available today.

The MQM workers and Mohajir nation rejected the PSP and then the ISI started pressuring them to join the PSP by arresting the MQM workers and officials and torturing them in custody. The leader of MQM, any member of the coordination committee who held a press conference on this matter and brought the facts before the people, was threatened and harassed by the paramilitary rangers and ISI officials. The members of the Coordination Committee and the Members of the Parliament from the Rangers Headquarters were threatened and pressured to leave me (Altaf Hussain) and join the PSP.

MQMP, another faction created by the military establishment

Besides the launching of the splinter group, PSP, the military establishment offered a parallel option to join the splinter PSP or MQMP. At the same time, the state operation against the MQM was accelerated under the Minus Altaf Hussain formula by the military establishment. Like other workers of MQM, another senior worker of MQM, Aftab Ahmed, was also the coordinator of the then Senior Deputy Convener of the MQM, Dr Farooq Sattar. On May 1, 2016, the paramilitary Rangers, on the orders of the then DG Rangers Major General Bilal Akbar, arrested and in custody charged with third degree torture. Consequent to the brutal torture for three continuous days, Aftab Ahmed succumbed to his injuries. The paramilitary Rangers claimed that Aftab Ahmed died as a result of cardiac arrest, but when the body of Aftab Ahmed was handed over to the heirs, his whole body was full of vehement torture. When the pictures came out on media, DG Rangers General Bilal Akbar admitted that Aftab Ahmed had been tortured in custody. (Newspaper clipping available). The then Army Chief General Rahil Sharif announced an investigation into the incident, but no investigation into the extrajudicial killing of Aftab Ahmed was conducted and those responsible were not punished and such incidents continued. The Coordination Committee of the MQM protested. On August 17, 2016, they started a hunger strike at the Karachi Press Club while peacefully protesting against the violation of human rights, but extra judicial killings, enforced disappearances and illegal arrests of MQM workers were continuing

On August 22nd 2016 during the hunger strike the military establishment intensified the ongoing state operation against the MQM, on the basis of my stance and my condemnation several offices of the MQM were bulldozed and arbitrary arrests of both men and women were carried. On the night of August 22, 2016, the army detained Dr Farooq Sattar, Khawaja Izharul Hasan from Karachi Press Club. The other day, both of them were released. Dr Farooq Sattar along with Khawaja Izharul Hasan and other members of the coordination committee of the MQM and the members of the assembly held a press conference at the Karachi Press Club and announced their indifference from me

Later, he managed to table a resolution against me in provincial assembly of Sindh which was passed, which carried a demand for trying me under article 6 of the constitution for treason and the minimum sentence is capital punishment. Dr Farooq Sattar, Aamir Khan, Khawaja Izharul Hasan and Khalid Maqbool Siddiqui along with others, amended the MQM's constitution illegally by implementing the formula of the military establishment for minus Altaf Hussain. They unlawfully amended the constitution of the MQM, removed me as leader and announced zero connections with me. They announced a separate party "MQMP" which, although it used the flag and electoral symbol of the MQM, but with an altered constitution. It was a completely different and new party consisting of those who had decidedly separated from me and who took a new path, which refused to have any connection with anything related to me, which was not a continuation of MQM in any way, but had a separate new identity of its own. Since this new party called 'MQMP' was created by the military establishment, like Haqiqi group, MQMP also started threatening the MQM workers to join them at the behest of the military establishment and the ISI. The leaders and workers of the MQM refused to go with them, they were arrested by the paramilitary Rangers and disappeared and those workers were in the custody of government agencies until they were ready to join the MQMP. or this purpose they even arrested many women workers of MQM by the agencies.

MQMP, formed by the military establishment, got patronized and enjoys ministerial portfolios in the Imran Khan government, also formed by the military establishment, including Claimant Amin ul Haq.

After the end of the Imran Khan government, Aminul Haq was awarded the ministry in the current government of the Muslim League-N. Due to the strong support of the military establishment, MQMP has the freedom to organize political meetings, processions, contest elections and all kinds of political activities. On the other hand, my MQM is not allowed to do political activities. Workers and families of the martyrs of the MQM are not allowed to visit graveyards to offer rituals. A senior MQM leader and Deputy Convenor of the Coordination Committee, 72-year-old Professor Dr Hasan Zafar Arif, was also arrested twice and kept in illegal detention for 6 months, even after being released on bail, the threat persisted. On 13th January 2018, he was kidnapped and subsequently killed.

Similarly, another coordination committee member, Saathi Ishaq Advocate also a former judge, was arrested and tortured for several days. Even today, many MQM workers have been enforcedly disappeared, thousands of innocent workers are imprisoned in different jails on false cases. They are not produced in courts and they are being tortured illegally in the jails. MQMP has not only created a fake MQM by following the Minus Altaf formula of the establishment but also seized all the welfare centers and assets of its welfare organization, Khidmat-e Khalq Foundation, or KKF (Foundation for serving humanity). Anyone on behalf of MQM, tried to seek legal redress, either gone missing or is being kept in detention.

MQM Head Office “Nine Zero” Burned Down and Bulldozed

In continuation of the ambush, on the night of 9 September 2022, Nine Zero was set on fire in the presence of paramilitary Rangers and Army personnel and was subsequently demolished. This was a pre-planned operation aimed at erasing Nine Zero from existence.

Regarding the fire incident, law enforcement agencies falsely claimed that the cause of the fire was a short circuit. This claim was completely false and fabricated, as electricity to Nine Zero had been disconnected since August 2016, both my house, 494/8 Azizabad, Federal B Area, Karachi, also known as MQM’s head office “Nine Zero”, and Khursheed Begum Memorial Public Secretariat(MQM Secretariat), and other offices were already sealed at that time. Additionally, more than 200 MQM offices situated in Karachi and across the country were sealed or demolished by the Pakistan Army. All of this was inflicted on me because I called out the inhumane treatment/brutal murders of my workers by the Pakistan Army.

Since 22 August 2016, paramilitary Rangers and Army personnel had been deployed around Nine Zero 24/7, and no one was allowed to enter the premises. In the Army’s presence, the house was engulfed, as their personnel did not move from even for a second.

For reference, here is the Daily Dawn report on the mysterious fire at Nine Zero:

understand in light of the above historical facts that the claimant (referred to claimant, the new faction of MQM named MQM-P, who sued the original MQM led by Altaf Hussain in the High Courts of London) is supported by the military establishment behind the case filed by the MQMP (Aminul Haq) over ownership of party properties in London.

The above-mentioned facts are clear proof that the claims by the MQMP regarding assets in London are fake and deceptive.

MQMP is a group formed under the auspices of the Army and the ISI, whose aim is to work on the "minus Altaf Hussain" formula of the military establishment and to target the diaspora for nefarious purposes of the establishment. The military establishment's targets are the unity of Mohajirs, MQM, and Altaf Hussain.

In 2012, a money laundering investigation against MQM was opened in the UK by the Metropolitan police, and due to the insufficient evidence, no charge was brought. Subsequently, the matter was closed on 7th November 2016. This is a testament of MQM and Mr. Hussain's stance that all the funds credited to both are legal and are sourced by donations/gifts from its workers/followers/supporters.

In 2019, the CPS registered a case in London under the Terrorism Act 2006 based on a complaint from the Pakistani State. This case concerned Altaf Hussain's speech on August 22, 2016, in Karachi, during a hunger strike camp organized by MQM outside the Karachi Press Club, where he criticized the Pakistan Army for extra-judicially killing MQM workers and making them disappear. Mr. Hussain was unanimously acquitted by the jury in 2022 at Stratford-upon-Thames Crown Court. This serves as another example of the legal battles initiated and pursued by the Pakistan Army in the UK against Mr. Hussain.

The Pakistan Military has been using its full force and state machinery to silence Mr. Hussain in the UK, for which they have choked him financially, by starting sham and vexatious litigations, causing him severe financial constraints.
